A block of rooms has been reserved under RS&A-Group at $99/night and are available until January 25, 2012.

Target Audience:

This course is designed to assist the student in becoming a better-rounded, more competent fingerprint examiner. Those newer to the science of fingerprints will benefit from basic explanations of complex topics, while more seasoned examiners - such as those trained to a numerical standard for identifications - will benefit from discussions involving all aspects of the deposition process. Students with experience levels from 2 weeks to 25+ years have attended this class.

Attendees Should Bring:

A fingerprint magnifier and ridge counter are required for this class.
Dress is business casual.
